Today's Readings

Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord. The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: "The Lord is our righteousness."

Colossians 1:11-20

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers-- all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Luke 23:33-43

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." And they cast lots to divide his clothing. The people stood by, watching Jesus on the cross; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!" The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews." One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

The Acclamation and Response

323

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who liveth and reigneth with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6

Today's readings are found on page 2.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 46 (said responsively by whole verse)

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

*Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved,
and though the mountains be toppled into the depths of the sea;*

Though its waters rage and foam,
and though the mountains tremble at its tumult.

*The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.*

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High.

*God is in the midst of her;
she shall not be overthrown;
God shall help her at the break of day.*

The nations make much ado, and the kingdoms are shaken;
God has spoken, and the earth shall melt away.

*The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.*

Come now and look upon the works of the LORD,
what awesome things he has done on earth.

*It is he who makes war to cease in all the world;
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear,
and burns the shields with fire.*

"Be still, then, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations;
I will be exalted in the earth."

*The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.*

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up unto the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is meet and right so to do.

The Celebrant continues.

Sanctus and Benedictus

Celebrant and People: (said together)

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts: heaven and earth are full of thy glory.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people kneel or stand.

The Celebrant continues.

The Lord's Prayer (said together)

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant: Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Prayer of Humble Access

337

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE FOR NOVEMBER 20, 2022

Celebrant: Let us pray to our God through Jesus Christ, king of kings and ruler of the rulers of the earth, saying: O Christ, graciously hear us.

Intercessor: For this holy gathering and for the people of God in every place: for Michael, our Presiding Bishop, for Ruth, our bishop, and for Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury.

All: O Christ, graciously hear us.

Intercessor: For the leaders of our nations and all in authority, and for mercy, justice, and peace among all peoples; remembering all who serve at home or overseas in the military, or in mission or outreach work.

All: O Christ, graciously hear us.

Intercessor: For our islands and those who live on them, and for our families and all those we love, especially those in need:

All: O Christ, graciously hear us.

Intercessor: For our deliverance from all affliction, strife, and need, Christ, hear us.

All: O Christ, graciously hear us.

Intercessor: For those in danger and need; the hungry and those in prison. Christ, hear us.

All: O Christ, graciously hear us.

Celebrant: God of all peoples, nations, and languages, who is and was and is to come; hear the prayers we offer this day and enable us to serve you as faithful priests in your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
