Today's Readings

Isaiah 35:1-10

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the LORD, the majesty of our God. Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you." Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp, the grass shall become reeds and rushes. A highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Holy Way; the unclean shall not travel on it, but it shall be for God's people; no traveler, not even fools, shall go astray. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it; they shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there. And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

James 5:7-10

Be patient, therefore, beloved, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious crop from the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near. Beloved, do not grumble against one another, so that you may not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the doors! As an example of suffering and patience, beloved, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

Matthew 11:2-11

When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?" Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me." As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written, 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.' Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

Copies of Advent and Christmas Wisdom from Henri J.M. Nouwen: Daily Scripture and Prayers together with Nouwen's Own Words will be available in Guerry Hall for $8. Reflections for each day begin with the words of Henri Nouwen followed by Scripture readings and prayers. A wonderful way to begin this new church year.

People: That your people may rejoice in you?

Celebrant: Show us your mercy, O Lord.

People: And grant us your salvation.

Celebrant: Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord!

People: Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

The Liturgy of the Advent Wreath

The custom of lighting candles on a decorated wreath comes to us from the Lutheran Church in Scandinavia. Like the Christmas tree, the Advent wreath has its origins in pre-Christian festivals of light which celebrated the winter solstice. In recent years its use has become widespread in most Christian churches in the West as a reminder of our time of preparation for the coming of Christ, both at Bethlehem and at the end of the world.

The candles are usually white or red in the Lutheran tradition. We are also familiar with the use of purple/blue candles, since these are the traditional colors of church vestments for the four Sundays of Advent. The royal colors of purple and blue are in honor of Christ's kingship.

Each Sunday of Advent a new candle is lit with prayer, until all four are lit on the Sunday before Christmas. A fifth candle, always white, is placed in the center of the wreath for Christmas. This Christ candle is lit until the Epiphany, when the wreath is put away.

Reader: Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. Those who follow me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

People: Come, Lord Jesus, come quickly.

Reader: The Sovereign Lord has filled me with his spirit. He has chosen me to bring good news to the poor, to heal the broken-hearted, to announce release to captives, and freedom to those in prison. He has sent me to proclaim that the time has come when the lord will save his people. (Isaiah 61:1-2)

We light this candle to remind us of our task in preparing the world for the coming of the Messiah. We are also called to be prophets who will relieve suffering, promote justice, and bring hope to those who live without light and love.

The third candle is lit.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Stir up thy power, O Lord, and with great might come among us; and, because we are sorely hindered by our sins, let thy bountiful grace and mercy speedily help and deliver us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever.

Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Reading: Isaiah 35:1-10

Today's readings are found on page 2.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 146: 4-9 (said responsively by whole verse)

Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their help!
whose hope is in the LORD their God;

*Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is in them;
who keeps his promise for ever;*

Who gives justice to those who are oppressed,
and food to those who hunger.

*The LORD sets the prisoners free;
the LORD opens the eyes of the blind;
the LORD lifts up those who are bowed down;*

The LORD loves the righteous;
the LORD cares for the stranger;
he sustains the orphan and widow,
but frustrates the way of the wicked.

*The LORD shall reign for ever,
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.
Hallelujah!*

The Second Reading: James 5:7-10

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

Intercessor: For our deliverance from all affliction and strife, and for all those in special need: We pray.

People: Come, O Lord, and save us.

Intercessor: For all those who have gone before us, remembering Emogene Christie, we pray.

People: Come, O Lord, and save us.

Advent Collect: (said together)

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A NOTE FROM THE VICAR

What a meaningful Advent we are enjoying at St. John's. This week we made a path-way through a wooded area between our property and that of the Sea Island Comprehensive Health Care Center. Now we can walk over after the 10:30 service today and sing carols with the residents. Our Advent carol service last Sunday afternoon was a resounding success and an especially deepening event as we make our way in these shortened, darkened days toward the Light that is to come.

Thank you, Sam Carabetta, Anne Warf, Jeannie Martin, and Jo Vroon for your gifts of music and song!

In these times of change and rebirth and rebuilding, we are all on a very special journey together. As we continue to rebuild, thank you to all who have submitted pledge cards and plan to submit your pledge in the coming days and weeks. Your commitment and gifts will allow us to move forward toward our aim of becoming an autonomous parish, as has been the centuries-old custom of St. John's. Your pledges also signify that a community of faith and love is being re-formed and we all share in this holy and life-altering—but life-giving—effort. Such an experience is nothing short of the mystery of that Light which is to come—the Incarnation—God in Christ, Christ in us. Please be in touch with me should you have any questions about anything.

I am delighted to announce that Clark Cromwell will be joining St. John's on a part-time basis as Director of Parish Life and Family Ministry. Part of Clark's ministry will include building relationships with families and individuals and coordinating various parish events such as cookouts, as well as helping to integrate old and new parishioners into the life of the parish for the exercise of their own gifts for ministry and service. Clark is a native of New Orleans and graduate of Tulane University. He is an Eagle Scout and served for years as a Merchant Marine Captain. He currently serves in a part-time position as Administrator for the Charleston Port and Seafarers Society. Clark and his wife Sue will also be leasing the rectory. Thanks to Stuart Rumph and Doug Hardman and others, the rectory has recently undergone a few minor improvements. What a joy for the rectory to be lived in again! As you may have guessed, Clark is also the father of our wonderful Administrator, Anne-Clark Cromwell. Welcome, Clark!

A blessed Advent to you.

Yours,
Callie
