Today's Readings

Genesis 25:19-34

These are the descendants of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah, daughter of Bethuel the Aramean of Paddan-aram, sister of Laban the Aramean. Isaac prayed to the Lord for his wife, because she was barren; and the Lord granted his prayer, and his wife Rebekah conceived. The children struggled together within her; and she said, "If it is to be this way, why do I live?" So she went to inquire of the Lord. And the Lord said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples born of you shall be divided; the one shall be stronger than the other, the elder shall serve the younger." When her time to give birth was at hand, there were twins in her womb. The first came out red, all his body like a hairy mantle; so they named him Esau. Afterward his brother came out, with his hand gripping Esau's heel; so he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them. When the boys grew up, Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field, while Jacob was a quiet man, living in tents. Isaac loved Esau, because he was fond of game; but Rebekah loved Jacob. Once when Jacob was cooking a stew, Esau came in from the field, and he was famished. Esau said to Jacob, "Let me eat some of that red stuff, for I am famished!" (Therefore he was called Edom.) Jacob said, "First sell me your birthright." Esau said, "I am about to die; of what use is a birthright to me?" Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank, and rose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Romans 8:1-11

There is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law-- indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23

Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. And he told them many things in parables, saying: "Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Let anyone with ears listen!" "Hear then the parable of the sower. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."

Looking forward to seeing you this coming week and next Sunday. After attending a Voorhees University board retreat this past Thursday and Friday, I am on a brief vacation this weekend.

Thanks to you and your hard work and dedication, the past year has been a productive one. The seeds that are being sown are falling into rich soil and taking root. I am grateful. It is a joy to be on pilgrimage with you.

Yours,
Callie

People: Hallowed be your name.

Intercessor: On our farms and in our homes, in our colleges and schools, in our churches here and throughout the world, for Ruth, our Bishop, for Michael, our Presiding Bishop, and Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, and for The Episcopal Church of the Messiah, Myrtle Beach and The Anglican Church of Canada.

People: Your kingdom come.

Intercessor: For all of those who serve in our military or mission work. By our seeking your guidance, by our keeping your commandments, by our living true to our consciences:

People: Your will be done.

Intercessor: For all of those in need of our prayer, especially for: Carlton Morrow, Oscar Fuller, Wills Allen, George Tupper, Parker Tuten, Raymond Balzano, John Martin, Tiffany Maser, Betty Johnson, Buddy Hawkins, Carmen Bentz, Grady Norton & Ann Guettner. For the millions who live in poverty and hunger, for our own needs, and the requirements of our neighbors, by cooperation, sympathy and generosity:

People: Give us today our daily bread.

Intercessor: Because we have broken your commandments, doing what we ought not to do and neglecting what we ought to do:

People: Forgive us our sins.

Intercessor: If any have injured us by injustice or exploitation:

People: We forgive those who sin against us.

Intercessor: When prosperity lulls us to false security, or hard times prompt us to despair, when success makes us boastful, or failure makes us bitter:

People: Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Intercessor: For those who have died, In the assurance of faith, in the confidence of hope, in the will to serve, help us to love Christ as Lord, and our neighbor as ourselves:

The Apostles' Creed (metrical)

Ode to Joy

We believe in God the Father,
God almighty, by whose plan earth and heaven sprang to being all created things began.
We believe in Christ the Savior,
Son of God in human frame, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

Christ, who on the cross forsaken,
like a lamb to slaughter led,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
he descended to the dead.
We believe in Jesus risen,
heaven's king to rule and reign,
to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again.

We believe in God the Spirit;
in one Church, below, above:
saints of God in one communion,
One in holiness and love.
So by faith, our sins forgiven,
Christ our Savior, Lord and friend,
we shall rise with him in glory
to the life that knows no end.
