Today's Readings

1 Kings 8:22-30, 41-43

Then Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands to heaven. He said, "O Lord, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and steadfast love for your servants who walk before you with all their heart, the covenant that you kept for your servant my father David as you declared to him; you promised with your mouth and have this day fulfilled with your hand. Therefore, O Lord, God of Israel, keep for your servant my father David that which you promised him, saying, 'There shall never fail you a successor before me to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children look to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.' Therefore, O God of Israel, let your word be confirmed, which you promised to your servant my father David. "But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Even heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you, much less this house that I have built! Regard your servant's prayer and his plea, O Lord my God, heeding the cry and the prayer that your servant prays to you today; that your eyes may be open night and day toward this house, the place of which you said, 'My name shall be there,' that you may heed the prayer that your servant prays toward this place. Hear the plea of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place; O hear in heaven your dwelling place; heed and forgive. "Likewise when a foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, comes from a distant land because of your name—for they shall hear of your great name, your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm—when a foreigner comes and prays toward this house, then hear in heaven your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and so that they may know that your name has been invoked on this house that I have built.

Ephesians 6:10-20

Be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power. Put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand on that evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. Stand therefore, and fasten the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness. As shoes for your feet put on whatever will make you ready to proclaim the gospel of peace. With all of these, take the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert and always persevere in supplication for all the saints. Pray also for me, so that when I speak, a message may be given to me to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it boldly, as I must speak.

John 6:56-69

Jesus said, "Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever." He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum. When many of his disciples heard it, they said, "This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?" But Jesus, being aware that his disciples were complaining about it, said to them, "Does this offend you? Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh is useless. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But among you there are some who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the first who were the ones that did not believe, and who was the one that would betray him. And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by the Father." Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him. So Jesus asked the twelve, "Do you also wish to go away?" Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God."

Psalm 84 (Said responsively by whole verse)

- 1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O Lord of hosts!
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the Lord;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
- 2 *The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young;
by the side of your altars, O Lord of hosts,
my King and my God.*
- 3 Happy are they who dwell in your house!
they will always be praising you.
- 4 *Happy are the people whose strength is in you!
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.*
- 5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.
- 6 *They will climb from height to height,
and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.*
- 7 Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer;
hearken, O God of Jacob.

8 Behold our defender, O God;
and look upon the face of your Anointed.

9 For one day in your courts is better than a thousand in my own room,
 and to stand at the threshold of the house of my God
 than to dwell in the tents of the wicked.

10 For the Lord God is both sun and shield;
he will give grace and glory;

11 No good thing will the Lord withhold from those who walk with integrity.

12 O Lord of hosts,
happy are they who put their trust in you!

A Word from the Rector

You are in my prayers this morning, as ever, and I look forward to seeing everyone next Sunday. I've been taking a bit of time to focus on tending to a few projects around my house before beginning a wonderful fall schedule. As many of you know, I live in Riverland Terrace on James Island. Over the last while, it has been my pleasure to begin spending more and more time on John's Island, hence the deferred maintenance matters!

Looking forward to seeing you at services next Sunday, September 1st and after the 10:30 at the Parish Picnic at Camp St. Christopher. Be sure to let Anne-Clark know if you're planning to join us, as the camp will provide a cookout for us at the Ephie Seabrook Picnic Pavilion on the beach.

Love in Christ,
Callie

Dear Family at St. John's,

I wanted to take a minute to say a thank you to everyone at St. John's. My ordination was such a wonderful occasion for my family and especially for me. A huge thank you to the Flower Guild! The flowers were so beautiful and perfect for the occasion. A huge thank you, also, to the Altar Guild! Everything was shiny and gorgeous. A thank you to all the participants and volunteers in the service, luncheon, and reception on Sunday. I can't tell you how many compliments I have received from visitors to St. John's that weekend about how welcome and embraced they felt from the parishioners. It's not a surprise to me, of course, but it's always nice to have some validation for what you already know. Finally, a huge thank you to our staff for all their hard work. It was a beautiful ordination, and weekend, and I feel so blessed to be a part of the St. John's community.

Your Curate,

Eric+

The Apostles Creed (Metrical)

Nettleton

We believe in God the Father,
God almighty, by whose plan earth and heaven sprang to being all created things began.

We believe in Christ the Savior,
Son of God in human frame, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

Christ, who on the cross forsaken,
like a lamb to slaughter led,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
he descended to the dead.

We believe in Jesus risen,
heaven's king to rule and reign,
to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again.

We believe in God the Spirit;
in one Church, below, above:
saints of God in one communion,
One in holiness and love.
So by faith, our sins forgiven,
Christ our Savior, Lord and friend,
we shall rise with him in glory
to the life that knows no end.

HEAVEN IS A BEAUTIFUL PLACE: A MEMOIR OF THE CAROLINA COAST

By Genevieve "Sister" Peterkin and William P. Baldwin

This book was published in the year 2000, and I first read it before ever meeting Mrs. Peterkin or Billy Baldwin. Billy writes in his afterword, 14 years after the book was published: "Is it real? Does heaven exist? Since you have reached the end of this book, I don't see how you can answer No, for Sister Peterkin has taken you deep inside a human heart, her own, and shown you a love that can only be of divine origin. Heaven is a beautiful place."

"Heaven is a Beautiful Place is simultaneously local and universal, intimate and expansive, funny and sad...The hopeful quality of Heaven comes through distinctly, especially in Peterkin's wisdom about embracing the moment."

Copies are $15 and will be available in Guerry Hall beginning September 1st.
